

CONTENTS

Foreword by Stephen Haycox ix

Preface: Jumping Off the End of the Earth x

Acknowledgments xxiii

Note on Original Sources xxv

PART I. ROMANTIC VOYAGE: A TOUR OF SOUTHEASTERN ALASKA	3
1 John Muir, Fort Wrangel, Alaska, August 8, 1879	15
2 Charles Hallock, A Great Day in Sitka	23
3 C. C. Hine, The Patriarch and His Little Detective	30
4 Septima M. Collis, The Alaska Barnum's Dancers	35
5 Charles M. Taylor, Jr., Riding the Rails through White Pass Canyon	42
PART II. UNTAMED ALASKA: INTO THE VAST UNKNOWN	53
6 Caroline Willard, Chilcat Mission, Haines, Alaska	63
7 Lieutenant Henry T. Allen, Living Upon the Country	72
8 H. W. Seton Karr, Escape from Icy Bay	80
9 John Bremner, Living Off the Enemy	87
10 Herbert L. Aldrich, Whaling with the Fleet of 1887	95
11 Harry de Windt, Perilous Crawl Up the Chilkoot	102
12 Captain William Abercrombie, One Night on Valdez Glacier	111
13 Robert Dunn, From Nowhere to Nowhere	120

14	Agnes Herbert, Invitation to a Card Game	130
15	Hudson Stuck, Mistakes at Sixty Below	138

PART III. INEXHAUSTIBLE OPTIMISM: THE MAD RUSH FOR GOLD 146

16	Ernest Ingersoll, Outfit for an Argonaut	165
17	Robert C. Kirk, Heartbreak on the White Pass	173
18	Mary E. Hitchcock, Ho for the Land of Gold!	181
19	J. D. Winchester, The Mosquitoes' Bugle on the Koyukuk	190
20	Josiah Edward Spurr, A Bureaucrat Comes to Call	199
21	Joseph Grinnell, Pluck on the Kowak	208
22	May Kellogg Sullivan, No Time for Sonatas	216
23	M. Clark, Playing for Stakes	224
24	Edward J. Devine, The Great White Silence	232
25	Addison M. Powell, The Alien God of Gold	241
26	Arthur Arnold Dietz, On the Other Side of Disenchantment Bay	250
27	John F. Stacey, Twenty-One Days from Rampart City	259

Epilogue: A Cabin on the Edge of the Forest 273

Chronology of Alaska History through 1910 280

Bibliography 284